

The UCD meeting in Spain has been impressive. The opportunity to have participated in the presentations and also the possibility of being surrounded by people with that level of specialization is truly unique. Knowing new people, people who I am still in contact with a skiing things or changing different points of view.

Thank you for supporting my participation.

Ana Clara Bernal